

AmerisourceBergen Ribbon Cutting Event

Shown above are those in attendance at the AmerisourceBergen Ribbon Cutting Event in the Town of Newburgh including AmerisourceBergen President & CEO Steven Collis, Congressman Sean Patrick Maloney, Senator William Larkin, Senator Frank Skartados, Town of Newburgh Supervisor Gil Piaquadio, Town of Newburgh Deputy Supervisor Scott Manley, Councilwoman Elizabeth Greene, Councilman Paul Ruggiero, and many others.

On November 20th, AmerisourceBergen held a Ribbon Cutting Event for its' Distribution Center located at 108 NY-17K in Newburgh, NY. This new, state-of-the-art facility serves as the distributor to many pharmacy locations in the Eastern United States and provides employment opportunities to community residents. Many public officials were in attendance to celebrate the opening of this site.

Town of Newburgh Supervisor Gil Piaquadio said, "I am glad that AmerisourceBergen chose the Town of Newburgh. This fully automated site and the jobs created will benefit our community."
