

SERGEANT DENNIS SPAMPINATO RECEIVES PUBLIC SERVICE HONOR

Sergeant Dennis Spampinato (left) receives Certificate of Recognition from Town of Newburgh Supervisor Gil Piaquadio.

On March 11, 2019, the Town of Newburgh awarded Sergeant Dennis Spampinato a Certificate of Recognition for his lifetime of public service. For over 50 years, Sergeant Spampinato served as Fireman and Chief at the Dan Leghorn Engine Company. He also serves as Court Officer with rank as Sergeant at the Town of Newburgh Justice Court.

Sergeant Spampinato is an outstanding husband, father, and grandfather; and his family members have followed in his footsteps. His son Vincent Spampinato is a retired Police Sergeant with the Town of Newburgh, and his daughter-in-law Terrieann Spampinato is also a Town employee.

Supervisor Piaquadio acknowledged Mrs. Spampinato for supporting her husband Dennis throughout the over 50 years of service as he responded to fire-related emergencies and attended firehouse meetings.

#

#

#