

JAMES POLITI SWORN IN AS TOWN OF NEWBURGH TOWN COUNCILMAN

The Hon. Richard Clarino administers the oath of office to the newly-elected Town of Newburgh Town Councilman James Politi with his granddaughter holding the Bible.

Town of Newburgh Supervisor Gil Piaquadio (right) and the Town of Newburgh Town Council Members congratulate Town Councilman James Politi in the presence of his supporting friends and family members.

On January 13th, James Politi was sworn in as the newest Town of Newburgh Town Councilman at the Town of Newburgh Town Hall. The Honorable Richard Clarino administered the oath of office to James Politi with his granddaughter holding the Bible.

Town of Newburgh Supervisor Gil Piaquadio and Town Council Members congratulated Town Councilman James Politi on his new position as the Town Councilman in the presence of supporting friends and family members. His decades of municipal experience, role as a former member of the Town's Zoning Board of Appeals, and love of public service are beneficial qualities that will enhance the Town of Newburgh Town Council.

James Politi, welcome to the Town of Newburgh Town Council. We wish you success as you serve our Town as the newest Town of Newburgh Town Councilman.

#