

Town of Newburgh
Public Information Workshop
East Coldenham Hamlet Study
March 6, 2012

The Town of Newburgh is currently conducting a study of the East Coldenham area . The Town’s Comprehensive Plan Update recommended that a study be conducted in this area to examine issues and opportunities related to, but not limited to, hamlet planning and design, potential “gateway” treatments, vehicular and pedestrian transportation and access, including potential circulation and calming improvements and community resources. As part of its information gathering and outreach efforts, the Town is conducting a public information workshop.
